

LEAD-ECI

LEAD Spring 2010 Panel Biographies

Monique Armstrong Executive Director, Motivate Our Minds

---

Monique Armstrong is the Executive Director of Motivate Our Minds, Inc., an organization that provides at-risk Delaware County children with an enriching and educational atmosphere that combines intensive direction instruction by certified teachers with immersive learning opportunities. Before assuming her position with Motivate Our Minds, Monique served as outreach coordinator for Future Choices, Inc. and a grants assistant for Cornerstone Center for the Arts. Monique is a graduate of both Butler University and Ball State University and provides volunteer leadership to many local organizations.

Jimmy Byrd District Executive Director, Muncie Family YMCA

---

Jimmy Byrd is a graduate of Muncie Southside High School (1993) and Ball State University (1998). He worked for Ball Memorial Hospital from 1998 to 2003 as an Exercise Specialist at Health Strategies in the Southway Plaza. In 2003, he transitioned from Health Strategies to the YMCA during a merger between two organizations. Currently, Jimmy serves as District Executive Director for the Muncie Family YMCA where he oversees the Downtown, South and newly opened Yorktown YMCA facilities.

Andrew Dale Principal, David Dale Designs, LLC

---

Born in Muncie, Indiana, Andrew Dale is principal of David Dale Designs, a project management, interior design, logistics management, product procurement and fine art services firm specializing in the specification and implementation of complex interiors for corporate, health care, educational, public, liturgical and residential environments. Previous to joining David Dale Designs, Andrew worked in the field of community and economic development and public health planning for nearly a decade by appointment of three mayors. Lastly, Andrew serves as the chairman of Lifestream Services and the founding chair of LEAD-ECI.

Todd Terrill Principal, Northside Middle School

---

Todd Terrill is the Principal of Northside Middle School in Muncie, IN. Prior to going into education administration, Todd spent 10 years as a teacher and coach in Richmond, Tampa, FL, and Memphis, TN. In August of 2008, Todd graduated from Indiana State University with an Education Specialist Masters Degree and school superintendent license. In July of 2005, Todd graduated from Ball State University with a Master of Arts in Education and principal's license. And in May of 1992, Todd graduated from Maranatha Bible College with a Bachelor of Science in the area of education.

